A Prayer

“Lord, you know us very well.

We are very small and can do nothing without you. We need you as the newest people to do a mission like this. We lift everything up to you.

Forgive us and prepare the way for us. Open our eyes to see what we should see. Open our hearts to feel what we should feel. Give us strength and boldness to do what we should do. Do not let us miss what we should do and guide us for your glory.

In Jesus’ name we pray.”

- Prayer by Ka Paw Say, FBR, on the eve of a Karen headquarters mission to Arakan State.

Our Vision

To free the oppressed and to stand for human dignity, justice and reconciliation in Burma.

Our Mission

To bring help, hope and love to people of all faiths and ethnicities in the conflict zones of Burma, to shine a light on the actions of oppressors, to stand with the oppressed and support leaders and organizations committed to liberty, justice and service.

“When under pressure we might ask the question, “What will become of me?” The real question is, “What should I do?” When we ask that question, we find the answer in love. We go compelled by that love in heart, mind, and soul:

- We love the people of Burma and we want to help them. This is our heart.
- We believe that oppression is morally wrong. This is our mind.
- We go because the people of Burma are God’s children and it is right to try to help them and to be with them.

This is our soul.”

Situation Update

Over 60 years of civil war have left Burma one of the poorest countries in the world. During this time, successive military dictatorships killed thousands of their own people and displaced millions in resistance areas. Recent developments have created some positive changes while there is still ongoing oppression.

Good News:

1. Ceasefire negotiations ongoing with many ethnic groups and an overall reduction in fighting.
2. Hundreds of political prisoners released.
3. Some positive reforms.

Ongoing oppression:

1. Attacks continue in many ethnic areas.
2. There are still hundreds of political prisoners.
3. Major outbreaks of communal violence.
4. Humanitarian access blocked in many areas.

F B R R E S P O N S E

In a year, FBR conducts over 120 relief missions in 12 ethnic areas:

- People, horses, mules, trucks and boats carry thousands of loads of relief supplies to people in need.
- Medicine is distributed to treat over 80,000 patients who have little access to medical care.
- Clothing, tarps, blankets, food, soap, and other needed relief supplies are distributed for over 50,000 people.
- Five major leadership, relief team, and medical trainings are conducted for new and old teams.
- FBR’s Jungle School of Medicine provides advanced training and medical services.

Working with others, over 70 Free Burma Ranger humanitarian relief teams bring help to people in the conflict zones of Burma. Since 1997, over 900 missions have been conducted to assist over 1,100,000 people.
